CORAM : A.M.KHANWILKAR,

VACATION JUDGE.

DATE : 1ST JUNE, 2005

P.C.:

1. Heard counsel for the parties. Perused the record.

2. This application has been filed on the assertion that the applicant is suffering from serious ailment, for which reason, he should be admitted to the Private Hospital of Dr.Animish

Chawan, at Satara.

3. After going through the record, in my opinion, ailment in question is not a serious ailment, which would warrant treatment in private hospital. The ailment which is suffered by the applicant can be attended to by the Government Doctors and if the said doctor is of the opinion that proper medical facilities cannot be extended while the applicant is in jail and recommends shifting of the applicant to some suitable Government Hospital, where such treatment can be provided.

4. Viewed in this perspective, I see no reason to accede to the prayer made in this application for bail and or/for temporary bail and/or to allow the applicant to take treatment in a private hospital.

5. Application disposed of in the above terms.
